You know it's coming up on a year you've been working here.
Has it been that long? Time really does fly. I remember when you found me, at the lowest point in my life.

Digging in the trash...
Just to survive.

Who knows where I'd be if you hadn't given me this job.
I owe you everything, Rosco.

Being a mechanic isn't glamorous, but... It's a life
Thank you
You're gonna make me cry.
Let's get to work
